

LONDON CHILDREN'S BALLET

AUDITIONS 2019

Tina Frances Photography

LCB is looking for 56 talented young dancers (girls aged 9-14, boys 9-16) to star in a new two-act narrative ballet which will be based on Anne of Green Gables and performed over eight shows at the Peacock Theatre in London's West End from 18-21 June 2020. A further 36 dancers will also be selected for LCB's community touring companies.

The LCB training and performance experience is FREE to take part. There is no fee. LCB encourages applications from dancers of all shapes, sizes and experience levels, choosing dancers based on talent and star quality alone. Newcomers are welcome.

Anne of Green Gables will feature a host of wonderful soloist and corps de ballet roles for boys and girls. All roles are danced by children. Working with choreographer Andrew McNicol, dancers will receive over 100 hours of expert coaching on Sunday afternoons, culminating in eight West End performances with a live orchestra.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: 7th October, 10am

For further details and to apply visit www.londonchildrensballet.com

Rehearsals: Central London, Sunday afternoons Feb-June, plus one week over Easter & May half term*.

Performances: 18-21 June 2020. Full details online.

*Special rehearsal allowances will be made for those in GCSE year.